WHY DOES SFFC WORK?

Our goal is to connect struggling families in crisis situations with healthy community members to pull them out of isolation while they stabilize (finding housing, employment, accessing treatment, and achieving personal goals).

- Safe Families is volunteer driven which makes it a free support to parents
- Volunteers go through extensive background checks and training
- Parents maintain full custody and can stop services at any time
- Hostings vary from a few hours to several months
- Regular visits and contacts are maintained throughout hosting
- Safe Families goal is to provide the family with a community and resources so that our services are no longer necessary

SAFE FAMILIES IS COMMUNITY

Some parents need a safe place for their children to stay while they get back on their feet. Other families need external supports. Safe Families can help with both.

"I've never seen it before in my life, so many people coming together to help one or two others. I never thought I'd make it. I don't know what I'd do without them." ~ Jessica
