ABOUT TLP

The purpose of our program is to provide opportunity and support services to young adults ages 18-21 years old who have a desire to work towards independence. The HWAM Transitional Living Program will assist residents in preparing themselves for the future workplace, and for being contributing members of society.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE

- Young adults ages 18-21 years who are voluntarily requesting service
- Young adults determined to be runaway, homeless, or at-risk
- Young adults who are preparing to transition out of ODHS custody
- Young adults residing in Jackson or Josephine counties
- Young adults with basic life skills, mental health stability, and do not require constant supervision

BENEFITS OF TLP

- Safe stable housing while working toward independence
- Personal support from dedicated and caring staff
- Job readiness and attainment
- Improved relationships with family and friends

This is a structured program to assist residents to work toward independent living and achieve other life goals.
